

JOINING THE EPPE NETWORK

The EPPE Network is designed to provide support, opportunities and inspiration to its members in their work across the field of education. Joining the network is equivalent to joining a community, and it is important to understand what is involved before becoming a member. Here, we outline what you can expect if you decide to join the EPPE Network.

BENEFITS

- ▶ Membership offers you access to an international network of contacts working in the field of education.
- ▶ We will keep you updated with relevant, easy-to-digest information about issues related to equity and education, including events, analysis, publications and job opportunities.
- ▶ We will help promote your professional profile and activities across a range of platforms to other members and beyond.
- ▶ We offer a professional platform for publishing your own analysis of issues related to education, public policy and equity.

COMMITMENTS

- ▶ You must be prepared to be contacted by other EPPE Network members for professional purposes, and be willing to support other members wherever possible.
- ▶ You must be willing to take an active part in EPPE Network activities, whether online or in person.
- ▶ We ask our members to make a minimum of one active contribution per year to original EPPE Network content. This might be running an event, writing a blog post or publishing a report based on your work.
- ▶ We ask our members to act in a courteous, collaborative and professional fashion when engaging with the EPPE Network. We provide a supportive and welcoming community to likeminded professionals, and we expect members to uphold this in all communications.
